

Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia (ALL) to Cervical Cancer

ACUTE LYMPHOCYTIC LEUKEMIA (ALL)

American Cancer Society – Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia (ALL)

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The organization's website provides a discussion of ALL including, key statistics, signs and symptoms, causes, risk factors and prevention, treatment, coping, clinical trials, support programs, and research. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/leukemia-acutelymphocyticalinadults/index>

CancerNet.com – Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia

Cancer.Net provides timely, comprehensive, oncologist-approved information from the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), with support from the Conquer Cancer Foundation. This is CancerNet's Guide to Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia. It includes sections such as Overview, Statistics, Medical Illustrations, Risk Factors, Symptoms and Signs, Diagnosis, Sub-types, Treatment Options, About Clinical Trials, Latest Research, Coping with Side Effects, After Treatment, Questions to Ask the Doctor, and Additional Resources – Advocacy organizations. <http://www.cancer.net/cancer-types/leukemia-acute-lymphocytic-all>

Leukemia and Lymphoma Society – Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia

The mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services. This ALL site includes information on incidence, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, sub-types, before treatment, treatment, clinical trials, follow-up care, childhood ALL, and resources. <http://www.lls.org/#/diseaseinformation/leukemia/acutelymphoblasticleukemia/>

MedlinePlus, National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health – ALL

This website presents sections on diagnosis, symptoms, treatment, prevention/screening, financial issues, clinical trials, research, organizations, and patient handouts. <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/acutelymphocyticleukemia.html>

1UpOnCancer This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>

ACUTE MYELOID LEUKEMIA (AML)

American Cancer Society – Acute Myeloid Leukemia (AML)

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The organization’s website provides a discussion of AML which includes general information, statistics, signs and symptoms, diagnosing, risk factors and prevention, causes, treating, coping, nutrition, support programs, managing insurance, research, and clinical trials. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/leukemia-acutemyeloidaml/>

CancerNet.com – Acute Myeloid Leukemia (AML)

Cancer.Net provides timely, comprehensive, oncologist-approved information from the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), with support from the Conquer Cancer Foundation. This is CancerNet’s Guide to Acute Myeloid Leukemia. It includes sections such as Overview, Statistics, Medical Illustrations, Risk Factors, Symptoms and Signs, Diagnosis, Sub-types, Treatment Options, About Clinical Trials, Latest Research, Coping with Side Effects, After Treatment, Questions to Ask the Doctor, and Additional Resources – Advocacy organizations. <http://www.cancer.net/cancer-types/leukemia-acute-myeloid-aml/overview>

Leukemia and Lymphoma Society – Acute Myeloid Leukemia

The mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services, such as live telephone support, family support groups and online chats. This LLS site includes information on acute myeloid leukemia such as incidence, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, sub-types, before treatment, treatment, clinical trials, follow-up care, childhood AML, and resources. <http://www.lls.org/#/diseaseinformation/leukemia/acutemyeloidleukemia/>

MedlinePlus, US National Library of Medicine – AML

This website includes sections such as the summary – general information on AML, diagnosis/symptoms, treatment, prevention/screening, alternative therapy, specific conditions, related issues, tutorials, financial issues, clinical trials, genetics, research, journal articles, organizations, and patient handouts. <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/acutemyeloidleukemia.html>

1UpOnCancer This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>

ACUTE NON-LYMPHOCYTIC LEUKEMIA (See ACUTE MYELOID LEUKEMIA)

ADULT T-CELL LEUKEMIA

CancerNet.com – Adult T-cell Leukemia

Cancer.Net provides timely, comprehensive, oncologist-approved information from the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), with support from the Conquer Cancer Foundation. This is CancerNet’s Guide to T-cell Leukemia. It includes sections such as Overview, Statistics, Medical Illustrations, Risk Factors, Symptoms and Signs, Diagnosis, Sub-types, Treatment Options, About Clinical Trials, Latest Research, Coping with Side Effects, After Treatment, Questions to Ask the Doctor, and Additional Resources – Advocacy organizations. <http://www.cancer.net/cancer-types/leukemia-chronic-t-cell-lymphocytic/overview>

Leukemia and Lymphoma Society – T-cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia

The mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services, such as live telephone support, family support groups and online chats. This LLS site includes information on T-cell acute lymphocytic leukemia such as incidence, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, sub-types, before treatment, treatment, clinical trials, follow-up care, childhood AML, and resources. <http://www.lls.org/#/diseaseinformation/leukemia/acutelymphoblasticleukemia/allsubtypes/>

Lymphoma Research Foundation

LRF is the largest non-profit organization in the nation devoted exclusively to funding innovative lymphoma research and providing people with lymphoma with healthcare and support information. The LRF site includes an overview of Adult T-cell Leukemia/Lymphoma, and sections on subtypes, treatment options, treatment under investigation, clinical trials, follow up, support, including one – to – one peer support, and transportation assistance, resources, including webcasts and booklets, and a helpline. <http://www.lymphoma.org/site/pp.asp?c=bkLTKaOQLmK8E&b=6300141>

1UpOnCancer This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>

ANAL CANCER

The American Cancer Society

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The anal cancer site includes statistics, signs and symptoms, diagnosing, staging, survival rates, risk factors, causes, treating, coping, insurance issues, research, clinical trials, and support programs. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/analcancer/index>

The HPV and Anal Cancer Foundation

The HPV and Anal Cancer Foundation is dedicated to empowering anal cancer patients and accelerating prevention and research methods that eliminate anal cancer and the virus that causes the majority of cases, HPV. The organization provides services such as a peer to peer support program, fact sheets, support resources, financial resources, and a blog. www.analcancerfoundation.org

1UpOnCancer This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>

BLADDER CANCER

The American Bladder Society

The American Bladder Cancer Society’s function is to raise awareness of bladder cancer, advocate for research advancement, and support bladder cancer survivors. The site includes sections such as bladder cancer risk factors, symptoms, diagnosis, staging, sexuality, and clinical trials. The organization also offers a Bladder Cancer Forum and a New Treatment Center Finder. www.bladdercancersupport.org

The American Cancer Society - Oral Cavity and Oropharyngeal Cancer

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The bladder cancer site includes statistics, signs and symptoms, diagnosing, staging, survival rates, risk factors, causes, treating, coping, insurance issues, research, clinical trials, and support programs. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/bladdercancer/index>

Bladder Cancer Advocacy Network - BCAN

The Bladder Cancer Advocacy Network provides education & support programs for those living with bladder cancer, as well as funding for innovative research. The website includes sections on Understanding Bladder Cancer, an online Resource Library, a Clinical Trial Searchable Database, and support groups. www.bcan.org

National Cancer Institute - Bladder Cancer

The National Cancer Institute is part of the National Institute of Health, one of 11 agencies currently operating under the umbrella of the Department of Health and Human Services. In addition to research conducted in its own clinics and laboratories, the NCI supports and coordinates research projects through cancer centers, hospitals, and universities, while also being the primary federal entity responsible for disseminating information about cancer. This site includes general information on bladder cancer, stages, treatment, and information on coping and support. <http://www.cancer.gov/types/bladder>

BILE DUCT CANCER

The American Cancer Society - Oral Cavity and Oropharyngeal Cancer

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The bile duct cancer site includes statistics, signs and symptoms, diagnosing, staging, survival rates, risk factors, causes, treating, coping, insurance issues, research, clinical trials, and support programs. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/bileductcancer/>

CancerNet.com – Adult T-cell Leukemia

Cancer.Net provides timely, comprehensive, oncologist-approved information from the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), with support from the Conquer Cancer Foundation. This is CancerNet's Guide to Bile Duct Cancer. It includes sections such as Overview, Statistics, Medical Illustrations, Risk Factors, Symptoms and Signs, Diagnosis, Sub-types, Treatment Options, About Clinical Trials, Latest Research, Coping with Side Effects, After Treatment, Questions to Ask the Doctor, and Additional Resources – Advocacy organizations. <http://www.cancer.net/cancer-types/bile-duct-cancer>

Cancer Support Community - Bile Duct Cancer

This organization is a global network of education and hope. Its mission is to ensure that all people impacted by cancer are empowered by knowledge, strengthened by action, and sustained by community. The bile duct site includes sections and services such as diagnosis, treatment, side effect management, risk factors/signs and symptoms, stages, emotional wellbeing, a cancer support hotline, and a kids and teens support program. <http://www.cancersupportcommunity.org/MainMenu/About-Cancer/Types-of-Cancer/Bile-Duct>

The Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation

The mission of the Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation is to find a cure and improve the quality of life for those affected with bile duct cancer. The Foundation provides information regarding cholangiocarcinoma, symptoms, staging, treatment options, a list of cancer centers for second opinions, molecular testing information, clinical trials, e-book on biliary cancer, free biliary emergency information card, discussion board, and newsletter. www.cholangiocarcinoma.org

BONE CANCER

The American Cancer Society - Oral Cavity and Oropharyngeal Cancer

The American Cancer Society is a nationwide network of community based, voluntary health organizations committed to the research and defeat of cancer. The bone cancer site includes statistics, signs and symptoms, diagnosing, staging, survival rates, risk factors, causes, treating, coping, insurance issues, research, clinical trials, and support programs. <http://www.cancer.org/cancer/bonecancer/index>

Cyrus Desai Charity Foundation

The Cyrus Desai Charitable Foundation is committed to supporting research, early detection, innovative treatment and eradicating bone cancer by raising awareness and supporting research. www.tacklebonecancer.com

National Cancer Institute - Bladder Cancer

The National Cancer Institute is part of the National Institute of Health, one of 11 agencies currently operating under the umbrella of the Department of Health and Human Services. In addition to research conducted in its own clinics and laboratories, the NCI supports and coordinates research projects through cancer centers, hospitals, and universities, while also being the primary federal entity responsible for disseminating information about cancer. This site includes general information on bone cancer, stages, treatment, and information on coping and support. <http://www.cancer.gov/types/bone/bone-fact-sheet>

BRAIN CANCER

American Brain Tumor Association

The American Brain Tumor Association (ABTA) was the first national non-profit organization dedicated exclusively to brain tumor research. It provides critical funding to research based breakthroughs in brain tumor diagnosis, treatment, and care, with the ultimate goal of finding a cure. The ABTA is also the recognized resource for comprehensive information and support for the brain tumor patients, families, and caregivers who are living with this disease. www.abta.org

Get Your Head In The Game

“Get your head in the game” is an initiative of National Brain Tumor Society to create a game changer for the brain tumor. The organization’s motto is to bring national spotlight to brain tumor and educate the public and medical professionals about facts, symptoms, and proper diagnosis techniques. The organization is located in Wilmington, Delaware. <http://braintumor.org/join-the-fight/>

National Brain Tumor Society

National Brain Tumor Society is a nonprofit organization aspiring to find a cure and improve the quality of life for those affected by brain tumors. They fund strategic research, deliver support services, and promote collaboration. The organization has its offices at San Francisco, Boston and Philadelphia. www.braintumor.org

Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation (PBTF)

Working together to fight one of the deadliest forms of childhood cancer, the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation is on a mission to cure the kids. This website includes sections on facing a diagnosis, questions to ask, beyond diagnosis, and support which covers camps, clinical trials, college scholarships, educational resources, financial aid, grief survivorship, transportation, and other resources. www.curethekids.org

BREAST CANCER

American Breast Cancer Foundation - ABCF

Non-profit organization dedicated to helping breast cancer patients through screening assistance programs, research, and support for patients and their families. www.abcf.org

Breast Cancer Alliance

Founded in 1996 by Mary Waterman, who was diagnosed with stage four breast cancer, The Breast Cancer Alliance's mission is to provide education and research in the fight against breast cancer. breastcanceralliance.org

Breast Cancer Coach

Breastcancercoach.com is a site founded by Dr. Talia Miller, a survivor of breast cancer. The site takes a holistic approach to the healing process through breast cancer recovery coaching. <http://www.mybreastcancercoach.org/>

The Breast Cancer Fund

The Breast Cancer Fund was formed in 1992 by Andrea Ravinett Martin with the objective of making breast cancer a priority of public health. breastcancerfund.org

Breastcancer.org

Breastcancer.org is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing the most reliable, complete, and up-to-date information about breast cancer. www.breastcancer.org

The Breast Cancer Recovery Foundation (BCRF)

Since 1997 The Breast Cancer Recovery Foundation (BCRF) has specialized in helping those diagnosed with breast cancer through their partnership with Infinite Boundaries, a company that coordinates wellness retreats. bcrf.org

The Breast Care Site

A partner with the National Breast Cancer Foundation, this site shares stories from survivors of breast cancer, as well as the individuals who supported them. While providing general facts and information, The Breast Care Site's main focus is on issues that survivors of breast cancer face, including more sensitive topics, such as issues with intimacy and post-surgery options. It also offers a vast assortment of related merchandise. <http://www.thebreastcaresite.com/>

Facing Our Risk OF Cancer Empowered (FORCE)

Facing Our Risk OF Cancer Empowered (FORCE) was created to address the needs and concerns of women facing an increased risk of developing cancer due past family history. Our mission is to improve the lives of individuals and families affected by hereditary breast and ovarian cancer. FORCE accomplishes this mission by creating awareness, supplying information and support to our community, advocating for and supporting research and working with the research and medical communities to help people dealing with hereditary breast and ovarian cancer. <http://www.facingourrisk.org>

Living Beyond Breast Cancer (LBBC)

Living Beyond Breast Cancer (LBBC) was established in 1991 by Marisa C. Weiss, MD, a radiation oncologist, during a time when information on breast cancer was not as readily available to women in need. Its mission includes offering specialized programs and services for the newly diagnosed, young women, those living with metastatic breast cancer, African-Americans, those diagnosed with triple-negative breast cancer and LGBT people affected by breast cancer. We also offer programs for caregivers and healthcare professionals to help them better meet the needs of people affected by breast cancer. <http://www.lbbc.org>

Men Against Breast Cancer

A national organization dedicated to helping men support their loved ones stricken with breast cancer, MABC is the first of its kind. An organization for men supporting the women they love which is located in Rockville, Maryland. <http://www.menagainstbreastcancer.org/>

Mothers Supporting Daughters with Breast Cancer (MSDBC)

Mothers Supporting Daughters with Breast Cancer (MSDBC) was founded in 1995 by Charmayne Dierker and her daughter Lillie Shockney. <http://www.mothersdaughters.org/>

National Breast Cancer Foundation

The National Breast Cancer Foundation's mission is to help women now by providing help and inspiring hope to those affected by breast cancer through early detection. www.nationalbreastcancer.org

1UpOnCancer This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>

The Young Survival Coalition (YSC)

The Young Survival Coalition (YSC) is a unique international conglomerate of breast cancer survivors and supporters focusing on issues relevant specifically to young women and breast cancer. The organization helps with understanding the diagnosis, family planning, treatment, surgery and reconstruction. <http://www.youngsurvival.org/>

BURKITT'S LYMPHOMA

Burkitt's Lymphoma Society

Burkitt's lymphoma is a rare form of Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma. The society hopes to serve as a central reference for the past and present Burkitt's community. The website provides information on Burkitt's lymphoma, symptoms, testing, PORT and PICC's, clinical trials, after treatment, treatment centers, Our Wall, and an online forum. www.burkittslymphomasociety.com

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

The mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services. Burkitt's Lymphoma is a subtype of Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma. This Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma site includes information on incidence, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, sub-types, before treatment, treatment, clinical trials, follow-up care, childhood Non-Hodgkin lymphoma, and resources. <http://www.lls.org/#/diseaseinformation/lymphoma/nonhodgkinlymphoma/childhoodnhl/>

MedlinePlus, National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health – Burkitt's Lymphoma

This website presents information on Burkitt's Lymphoma and has sections on causes, symptoms, exams and tests, and treatment. <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/ency/article/001308.htm>

CERVICAL CANCER

Cervical Cancer Free Coalition

The Coalition is working to eliminate cervical cancer through HPV vaccination, screening and education. It is a resource for cervical cancer-related events, news, and resources. www.cervicalcancerfreecoalition.org

Cervical Cancer Action (CCA)

Cervical Cancer Action: A Global Coalition to Stop Cervical Cancer is a community of organizations and individuals dedicated to working collaboratively to eliminate cervical cancer deaths worldwide. <http://www.cervicalcanceraction.org>

Foundation for Women's Cancer

The Foundation for Women's Cancer is a 501 (c) (3) not for profit organization dedicated to funding research and training, and ensuring education and public awareness of gynecologic cancer prevention, early detection and optimal treatment. www.foundationforwomenscancer.org

NCCC - National Cervical Cancer Coalition

The Coalition is working to help women, family members and caregivers battle the personal issues related to cervical cancer and HPV, and to advocate for cervical health in all women by promoting prevention through education about early vaccination, Pap testing and HPV testing when recommended. www.nccc-online.org

1UpOnCancer

This site states that it was started for a place to get good news. You can visit to learn about survivors and organizations doing incredible things, and to learn about promising research. It also has information about lifestyle choices to cut your chance for recurrence or to live well if you have metastasized. Visit for “Freebies for Cancer Patients” and other resources. And if you want a good laugh, click on the “Humor” link. It has information on cancer in general and specific information on cancers of the Blood, Breast, Cervical, Childhood, Colorectal, Lung, Melanoma, Ovarian, Prostate, and Uterine. <http://www.1uponcancer.com/>